

TOGETHER, WE CAN ELECT CANDIDATES WHO WILL BE CHAMPIONS FOR EDUCATION.

LET'S VOTE OUR VALUES.

Elections matter—especially when it comes to protecting quality public education. This election, we can stand together to vote our values on important propositions and elect candidates who will stand up for our students, our families, and our jobs.

CFT RECOMMENDS:

 Tony Thurmond State Superintendent of Public Instruction	 Malia Cohen Controller	 Don't forget to vote twice for Alex Padilla for U.S. Senate! <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. For the Special Election 2. For the General Election
 Governor Gavin Newsom	 Lieutenant Governor Eleni Kounalakis	 Attorney General Rob Bonta	 Treasurer Fiona Ma	 Secretary of State Shirley Weber	 Insurance Commissioner Ricardo Lara

Vote YES: Enshrine every Californian's current right to abortion and contraception in the state's constitution.

NEUTRAL: Create staffing and reporting requirements for dialysis clinics.

NEUTRAL: Allow in-person gambling in casinos on tribal lands.

Vote NO: Stop this Lyft-backed attempt to make taxpayers foot the bill for industry-mandated clean air requirements.

Vote NO: Stop out-of-state corporations from expanding gambling without investing in California or safeguarding against underage gambling.

Vote YES: Protect kids from flavored tobacco—end the sale of candy-flavored tobacco in California.

Vote YES: Provide $900 million for arts and music education in every pre-K–12 public school.

Paid for by California Federation of Teachers COPE Prop/Ballot Committee.
2550 North Hollywood Way, Suite 400, Burbank, CA 91505.

MAIL YOUR BALLOT BACK AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, OR RETURN IT IN PERSON BY NOV. 8.

For more information, go to CFT.org.